

LAST SAD RITES.

The funeral of James McCarthy was held from his late home, 44 Owasco street, this morning at 8:45 o'clock with services at St. Mary's church at 9:15, which consisted of a solemn high mass read by Rev. J. J. Gibbons. Rev. William Mulheron was deacon and Rev. J. F. Nelligan sub-deacon. The Painters' union, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body. The burial services were read by Rev. J. J. Gibbons, assisted by Rev. J. F. Nelligan and Rev. William Mulheron. The remains were taken on the 10:30 train to Baldwinsville for interment. The bearers were James Murnhy, John Flynn, Charles Quinn, Marshall Green, Edward Kaltenborn and John Houlahan.