

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth McCarthy.

Mrs. Elizabeth McCarthy, widow of James McCarthy, a life long resident of Auburn, died at 7:15 this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jeremiah Fitzgerald, No. 1½ Baker avenue. About seven years ago Mrs. McCarthy suffered a stroke from which she never fully recovered and for the past four months she had been confined to her bed. She bore her sufferings with Christian fortitude. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Fitzgerald and the Misses Florence, Alice and Mary McCarthy, all of this city, to whom the sympathy of their many friends will be extended in their affliction. Funeral services will be held on Monday morning at 8:15 at St. Mary's church and the remains will be taken on the 9:33 Central train to Baldwinsville where burial will be made.
