

OUR TERMS:

$1.00 FOR ONE YEAR.
 .50 " SIX MONTHS.
 .25 " THREE "
 Get our Clipping List.

Gazette & Farmers' Journal.

Address all Communications to the
 W. F. Morris Publishing Co.,
 Baldwinsville, N. Y.

VOL. XLIX.—NO. 33.

BALDWINVILLE, ONONDAGA CO., N. Y., THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1896.

WHOLE NO. 2582.

—About ten o'clock Sunday morning, several members of John Sloan's family were returning from services at St. Mary's church. They were in a democrat wagon, on the back seat being Mrs. Sloan and Misses Mary, Frances and Lizale Sloan. In front of Frank Root's residence on Bridge street the driver started up his horses suddenly and the back seat, either being loose or becoming loosened, tipped backward, throwing all the ladies out. Mrs. Sloan and Miss Frances Sloan were quite severely injured and were taken into the residence of Mrs. M. E. Marks, and Dr. Wasse was summoned. He found no bones broken and Mrs. Sloan was able to proceed to her home, but the young lady was removed to the home of Joseph McCarthy in a carriage. Both ladies are now much improved, and their escape from serious injury is little short of miraculous. Persons who saw the accident and hastened to their assistance felt sure that from the manner in which the ladies struck the ground that some one must be perhaps fatally hurt. Mrs. Sloan has been unfortunate in accidents occurring while out driving and this will only add to former fears.