MARRIED

McSWEENEY—McCARTHY.

On Tuesday morning, October 24, 1911, occurred the marriage of Miss Mary Agnes McCarthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius J. McCarthy, to Mr. John E. McSweeney of Lyons, formerly of Fulton. The ceremony was performed at St. Mary's church at nine o'clock by the bride's cousin, Rev. P. J. Sloan of Syracuse, who also celebrated a nuptial mass. He was assisted by Rev. John A. McGraw.

Miss Clara E. Savage of Buffalo was bridesmaid and George D. Barnes of Fulton acted as best man.

The bride wore a gown of cream marquisette over cream messaline, and a white beaver hat. She carried a rosary. The bridesmaid's gown was of lavender marquisette over lavender messaline. Her hat was of white beaver and she also carried a rosary.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on the Smoky Hollow road.

Besides the nearest relatives from this place were the following out-of-town guests: Miss Mary McSweeney, Miss Sorrigan, Daniel and William McSweeney of Fulton; Mrs. Mary A. Sloan, Mrs. Bridget Smith, Misses Frances, Alice, Elizabeth and Marion Sloan, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Miss Satie Smith, James H. Smith, and Rev. P. J. Sloan, all of Syracuse; Joseph J. Sloan of East Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Savage and Miss Clara Savage of Buffalo and Miss Margaret O. King of Skaneateles.

Mr. and Mrs. McSweeney left on a Western trip, including a visit to Detroit and a trip on the Great Lakes. They will reside in Lyons.
