

CICERO.

Nov. 25—This community has been very deeply stricken down with grief at the loss of a very dear friend, Mrs. John Phalen, who on the 30th of last December, became the wife of John Phalen. Mr. and Mrs. Phalen spent their wedded life in peace and happiness until about three weeks ago when the young wife began to complain. The husband did all that possibly could be done for her and on last Sunday evening Dr. Nathan Jacobson of Syracuse was called. He at once pronounced an operation necessary as tumors were the cause of the sickness. She was on Monday taken to Syracuse to the House of Good Shepherd and an operation was performed at 9 o'clock Friday by Dr. Jacobson. She died at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Phalen leaves besides her husband, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mackey, three brothers and one sister, the brothers are Fred, Marks and Boich, the sister is Mrs. Frank Hoes, and an endless chain of friends to mourn her loss. Funeral was held at the M. E. church Monday afternoon and was largely attended. Interment in North Syracuse cemetery.
