

Birth Report For December Listed

Natural Increase of 10 Noted in City Health Officer's Announcement

A natural population increase of 10 was reported today by Dr. H. E. Elwood, City Health Officer, in the monthly birth report for December, 1931. Thirteen of the new arrivals were boys and 11 were girls. There were 10 deaths during the month. The report is as follows:

December 3—Born, a son, George Mason, to Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Alderman, of Painted Post R. D. 2, at Corning Hospital.

4—A daughter, Joan Claire, to Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, of 379 East Second street, at Corning Hospital.

6—A son, David Marvin, to Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Pierson, of 251 West Second street.

8—A daughter, Rita, to Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah J. McCarty, of 283 Bridge street, at Corning Hospital.

8—A son, James Anthony, to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Galvin, of 185 West Second street, at Corning Hospital.

8—A son, Jack Robert, to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jelliff, of 88 West First street, at Corning Hospital.

11—A son, Phillip, to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Serrins, of 176 East Third street, at Corning Hospital.

14—A son, Floyd Eugene, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Crosson, of 269 Walnut street.

Deaths-Funerals

Death of an Infant

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Wolfrom, of Mansfield, Pa., formerly of Corning, died Saturday morning at Corning Hospital. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Johnson of Painted Post and grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Wolfrom of Mansfield, survive. The body was taken to Mansfield Sunday where burial was made. A prayer service at the grave was conducted by the Rev. Gillies, of the Mansfield Episcopal Church.

Theatre Guild To Elect Officers

Plans for Future Productions to be Discussed at Tonight's Session

The annual election of officers of the Corning Little Theatre Guild will be held tonight in the offices of the Corning Chamber of Commerce, according to announcement today by Secretary Elmer E. Meadley, of the organization.

Plans for future productions will also be discussed at this meeting and the reports of the last play presented by the Guild, "Green Stockings" will be heard.

Officers at present are president, Thomas Wood; vice president, Mrs. J. W. Lynahan, secretary and treasurer, Elmer E. Meadley.

Kosty Under Bail On Assault Charge

Is Alleged to Have Attacked Father-in-law Saturday Night; Bail is $500

Charles Kosty, Jr., East Tioga avenue, was at liberty today under $500 bail following his arrest Saturday night on a charge of assault in the third degree for an alleged attack upon his father-in-law, C. P. Bronson, 180 East Market street. Kosty was apprehended by Officers David C. Crandall and Harry Hammond.

Police reported today that Bronson swore out a warrant for the man's arrest after Kosty had allegedly attacked him at the former's home on East Market street. Kosty was slightly injured in the fray that followed.

He was released on bail at a hearing granted him by Judge Williams, who set January 12 as the date for the hearing in the matter.

Officers' Drill Pay Cut Foreseen

National Guard Convention to be Held in Buffalo This Week

Milk Producers To Hold Mass Meeting In Wellsboro, January 14

WELLSBORO, Jan. 11. — A movement has been started in Tioga County, Pa., organized by the milk producers, to bring together all interested producers for the purpose of discussing the milk markets.

A mass meeting will be held in the Bache auditorium in Wellsboro, Thursday afternoon, January 14 at 1 o'clock.

This movement is a result of a conference held in Mansfield and Wellsboro, January 9.

Those attending the conferences of the organization they represented as delegates were: Mr. Wheeler, manager of G. L. F., of Nashville, Pa.; Mrs. Coley Starkey, lecturer of Pomona Grange; C. Fred Hawkes of the Tioga County Home Department; Paul Korb, County Agent; Glen Edwards, Grange representative; H. L. Sealey, director of Dairymen's League.

Mrs. Malcolm Kingsley and John Adams who did not represent any organization were also present at the meeting.

Jersey Shore Case In Supreme Court

James O. Sebring is Defendant in Trade Acceptance Action

The action of the Jersey Shore Trust Company vs. James O. Sebring was started this morning in Supreme Court at Bath before Justice Edwin C. Smith.

The trust company seeks recovery on alleged trade acceptances given it by the defendant. The action was partly tried in Supreme Court at Corning several months ago but was put over to the Bath term by consent after certain evidence had been taken. It was expected that the trial would take all day today.

Eastern Star Installs Officers

Large Ceremony Held at Masonic Temple in First Meet- ing of New Year

The first meeting of Crystal City Chapter No. 351, Order of the Eastern Star, for 1932, was held at the Masonic Temple, Friday evening and the newly elected officers of the organization were installed in an impressive ceremony in charge of Mrs. James A. Rose of Painted Post, assisted by Mrs. Walter Roberts and Mrs. Archie R. Smith.

The following were installed into office: worthy matron, Mrs. Eugene Gorman; associate matron, ness the ceremony.

The following were appointed to act on the sick committee: Mrs. Agnes Russell, Mrs. John Diriam, and Mrs. F. O. Camp. Mrs. Leon Morgan, Mrs. James A. Rose and H. O. Anderson compose the financial committee. Mrs. Stanley Bailey was appointed to head the social activities of the organization for the month of January.

Preceding the business session a delicious dinner was served in the dining rooms for the members and their families. Mrs. B. G. Webster was in charge.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held Friday afternoon, January 22.

More than $1,000,000 worth of jute bags are used annually in Porto Rico, principally in the sugar industry.

Attractive Prices

Prices That Will Work Wonders
With 1932's Budget . . . Shop
The A&P Way . . . and Save!

SPECIAL
MONDAY--TUESDAY--WEDNESDAY

A LARGE LOAF OF GRANDMOTHER'S

Bread Regular Price 7c

—AND A—
ONE POUND JAR OF SULTANA

Peanut Butter Regular Price 19c

Regular Combination Price . . . 26c

BOTH FOR 19c

RICH—CREAMY

CHEESE

AGED
FOR FLAVOR

Lb 17c

PURE—REFINED

LARD

3 Lbs 23c

He was a good Sport

A fellow came in our store the other day and wanted to buy an Overcoat. We showed him several Coats. When he found one that pleased him he said:

"How much will that one cost me?" and we said "$22.50." He said "It's too much. We asked him if he would be willing to pay what it cost us wholesale and he said "Yes."

We showed him the