

MONDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1934.

Yuletide Program Opening Delayed By Women's Club

Christmas Contributions to Be Received; Fill Stockings for Sanitarium Patients

Corning Woman's Club will postpone the program with which the annual Christmas tea will open officially Tuesday afternoon in the Baron Steuben Hotel, from 3 o'clock to 3:30 o'clock in tribute to Mrs. Robert Dalton, valued member of the club, whose death occurred Sunday afternoon.

The program consists of numbers by the Choral Group, which is appearing for the last time before the club with Miss Ruth Phillips as director, prior to her departure for China. Between the groups of songs, Mrs. William C. Droege will give a Christmas reading.

Contributions for Corning Social Service Society, Corning Hospital and the Salvation Army will be received at the affair as has been customary in other years. Mrs. Hazel Sundstrom, chairman of the welfare department, will be in charge. Assisting her will be Mrs. P. F. Shetterly, Mrs. W. C. Herri-

$177 Collected
Salvation Army Kettles On

The tinkling of the Salvation Army's call among the need Christmas holidays going unheeded for collected here during eight days.

Captain Walter today that only $15 collected here during when three kettles Market street and placed in local that if additional contributed many will not receive Christmas baskets.

Last year the distributed 160 b city and the officer this mark or if post program to a wide

Faces Grand Jury For Carrying Gun

Charles Kosty, 30, Apprehended With Revolver

Faces Grand Jury For Carrying Gun

Charles Kosty, 30, Apprehended With Revolver; Released Under $500 Bail

Charles Kosty, Jr., 30, of 76 Wall street, was under $500 bail today awaiting action of the Grand Jury on a charge of carrying a dangerous weapon.

He was arrested in an East Market street establishment Saturday evening by Officer Howard Rose after reports had been received at police headquarters that the man was carrying a .38 calibre revolver. Police state the weapon was found in a holster attached to a belt on his trousers and that he was carrying the gun without a license or permit. When arraigned before City Judge Holland B. Williams Sunday morning, the defendant waived examination and was ordered held for the Grand Jury. The $500 bail was posted by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Kosty of this city.

His War St. I

A Vanderbilt Case

Kenogate Refuses to Appoint the Other Guardian of Girl

YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Sur. It James A. Foley has refused Mr. point Mrs. Gloria Morgan heirbilt personal guardian of eiless daughter, 10-year-old war.

He held that Supreme Court e John F. Carew had adequately disposed of the question child's custody in his redecision making little Gloria card of the Supreme Court granting principal custody to Harry Payne Whitney, her al aunt.

Sp ay fixed January 3, 1935, as for a hearing on Mrs. Vanlt's petition for appointment guardian of Gloria's huge estimated to be worth $3,0.

Tt PAY $10 FINES

es of $10 each were paid by Yule Barbara and Harry Miller st Erie avenue, when they ed guilty to charges of viola of the motor vehicle laws bejustice of the Peace, Clayton Robinson in Gibson Sunday. were arrested by State Aca vers Oscar Lazeroff and A. D. in Cughey of the Painted Post ation and Deputy Sheriff B. M. alcom. Barbara was charged instructing an unlicensed op com and Miller with driving with unde an operators license.

THE EVENING LEADER, CORNING, N. Y.

Code Committee To Meet Tonight

Food and Grocery Group to Hear Complaints at Session; Platman in Charge

A meeting of the Food and Grocery Code Committee for the Corning trade area will be held in Chamber of Commerce offices at 7:30 o'clock tonight. H. B. Platman, executive secretary of the Rochester District Code committee will be in charge of the meeting.

Grocers in the city have been notified of the meeting and have been asked to file any complaints against code violation at the meeting tonight.

These complaints are heard by the committee, which in turn investigates the charges and makes adjustments. Many cases of code violation have been adjusted satisfactorily by the committee, according to the secretary, Elmer E. Meadley.

PASTOR DIES

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 17.—(AP)—The Rev. E. J. Mannix, pastor of St. Catherine's church here and apostolic delegate to Denver, died Sunday night.

Mrs. Hultzman Fractures Hip

Condition Reported Good at Corning Hospital Today; Fell Friday Afternoon

The condition of Mrs. Louise Hultzman, of Chestnut street, who is confined to Corning Hospital with a broken hip is reported to be good today. Mrs. Hultzman suffered a serious fracture of the hip when she fell at the corner of Ontario and Bridge street Friday afternoon.

Some men going to work saw her fall and rushed to her assistance. She was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harriet Cook, of Norman and Decatur streets, from which she was later removed to Corning Hospital.

PAYS $5 FINE

Mrs. Margaret Westfall, 26, of 137 East Erie avenue, paid a fine of $5 when she pleaded guilty to a charge of public intoxication before City Judge Holland B. Williams today. She was arrested Sunday evening by Officers Howard Rose and William P. Jones.

For Classified Ads. Call 1000