Market Pushes Higher Today

Passes Tests of a Secondary Selling Wave in Manner Gratifying to Street

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 — (AP) — 1:53—Having passed the tests of a secondary selling were in a manner gratifying to Wall Street, the stock market pushed higher in quiet trading today.

Business news was too confused to inspire any brisk upturn, but the fact the market was able to withstand announcement of insolvency of one of the smaller stock exchange members was regarded as evidence that the recent nervous tension had been effectively eased.

Shares gaining to 2 to 3 points or more included Atchison, Reading, Union Pacific, Southern Railway, Westinghouse Electric, Du Pont, Byers, Johns Manville, United Aircraft, Allied Chemical, Hudson, Studebaker, Electric Auto Lite, Timken Roller Bearing, Eaton Axle and Western Union. Such issues as U. S. Steel, North

CHANGES HIS PLEA

Charles Kosty, 26, of Wall St., who pleaded not guilty to a charge of public intoxication in City Court Monday morning, Tuesday changed his plea to guilty and was fined $10 for the offense. Kosty was arrested by Officers Herschel Farrell and Harry Hammond about 10 o'clock Sunday night, with a companion who immediately pleaded guilty and was fined $5. Upon his negative plea Kosty gave bail of $20 for appearance before City Judge Williams Tuesday morning.

Success Greet Efforts of Club

Play "The Conflict" Given as
First of Season Enjoyed
Tuesday Afternoon

Success greeted the efforts of the Drama Department of Corning Woman's Club which presented its first play of the season at the club rooms Tuesday afternoon. The play, a one-act drama, "The Conflict," was presented under the direction of Mrs. Leslie Maltby.

Mrs. John W. Lynahan, chairman of the department opened the meeting and introduced Miss Madeline McNamara, who gave a short summary of the history of the one-act play. Miss McNamara also gave a brief resume of the play about to be produced and read the cast of characters.

The play concerned a mother, played by Mrs. Maltby, who loved her children devotedly but resented any attempt they made to break away from her apron strings.

The inevitable conflict comes when Emelie, played by Miss Mildred Kettyle, determines that she

Choir Memb Again E

Westminster Group
Delightful Progra
High Scho

Again the Westminster choir achieved a stupendous success in their first performance before a Corning audience. The choir, which sang at the early last summer, appeared for the second number on the course at Northside Tuesday evening.

Except for two numbers printed program and requested numbers used the choir sang an entire group of selections in appearance.

Words fail to convey the summation of the program, possibly more than an evening of tone, full tone, that rose with all the intricacy of a Bach fugue, in the soprano notes, contralto, then merged perceptibly into the tenor and the baritone voice.
