the K. O. wallop.

Referee Dean stopped the Gussie Rose-Charles Kosty fight in the fourth round when a gust of wind might have finished Kosty. Rose, who was nearly a foot shorter than Kosty, was ahead all the way.

ney, Wilkes-Barre, it was necessary for the management to secure two judges at the last moment. The referee made an announcement that anyone desiring to act as officials could take their places "on the judges' bench." Ward and Dauer were the first to offer their services and both were O.K. by the managers of the two
