

24. by of

Utica Messenger Boy Killed by Automobile

Utica, Oct. 11—Leonard Kohlbrenner, 16, Postal Telegraph messenger, died last night several hours after his bicycle and an automobile had been involved in a collision in Burrstone Road in the town of New Hartford.

The boy was returning to the Utica office after delivering a message. Fred Hayes, 32, Utica, was driver of the car. Injuries consisted of a fractured skull, compound fracture of both ankles and a right thigh.

John Nichols, a companion of Kohlbrenner, had just parted company with the youth. He heard the shriek of brakes and saw the accident. State police are investigating.