Marine's Bride

CORNING—Miss Mary Lena McPherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. McPherson, 101 Griffith St., became the bride of Marine Cpl. Philip James Kosty of 151 E. Second St. in a double ring service Saturday, Nov. 13, 1954, at 11 a. m. in Grace Methodist Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Charles Kosty of Syracuse and the late Charles B. Kosty.

The service was performed by the Rev. Guy Overshire. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Darrell Chapin, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her maid of honor was a sister, Miss Sally McPherson.

Best man was Robert Hewitt and the ushers were Ralph and Donald McPherson. All are of Corning.

The bride wore an ankle-length gown of tiny tiers of lace over taffeta and a jacket of lace with fingertip-length sleeves and a stand-up Elizabeth collar. Her crown of white velvet leaves held a shoulder-length veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white rosebuds.

One hundred guests were entertained at a reception in the church parish house following the ceremony.

The bride, who graduated from Northside High School in 1953, is employed as a cashier at the Rockwell Co. office. Her husband, is a 1952 graduate of the Cornwall Free Academy.

Mrs. Kosty will live with her parents while Cpl. Kosty is stationed at Quantico, Va.

The bride was entertained at a pre-nuptial variety shower given by her sisters, Miss Sally McPherson and Mrs. Robert Hewitt.
