

MOTORCYCLE NOT STOLEN; WAS SOLD TO MIKE KOSTY

The motorcycle reported by John J. McGuire, of Dodge avenue, as having been stolen, was not stolen at all, he announced today.

While he was in the hospital his father sold the machine to Mike Kosty, not notifying the son of the transaction, so when he recovered, and found his machine gone, he immediately reported to the police.