

Struck By Truck, Ankle Fractured

Alexander Kosty, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kosty of 174 East Market street, sustained a fractured ankle early this morning when he was struck by a truck operated by Jack Johns of 252 Bridge street and owned by Max L. Russ. The youth was taken to a local physician where the fracture was reduced.

Mr. Johns reported at police headquarters that he was proceeding east on Market street and stopped at the intersection of Pearl street to permit a truck to pass. As he turned south on Pearl, he stated in his report, he noticed two boys at the corner of the alley between Market street and Denison Parkway. The Kosty boy "evidently started to walk across the street and walked into the side of the truck," Mr. Johns said.
