DERRY CO-OPERATIVE

TROUBLE IN YARD

NEIGHBOUR ON THREE YEARS' SILENCE

WATER SPILLED

Alfred Caudrey, 142, Princess-street, Derby, was summoned by Minnie Ravenscroft, 144, Princess-street, at Derby Borough Police Court to-day for alleged assault.

Caudrey cross-summoned Mrs. Ravenscroft for alleged assault.

Ravenscroft said that she was cleaning the yard when Caudrey came past with his bicycle. It caught the bucket, and the water went over him. He attacked her, and followed her into the house and punched her. She had bruises on her arms and leg, and her face was bleeding.

"THREW IT OVER HIM"

Caudrey said that Mrs. Ravenscroft deliberately threw a bucket of water over him and threatened him with a saucepan of boiling water. Then she "came at him" with a brush, which he took from her and threw over the wall, and then punched her. Mrs. Ravenscroft for three and a half years, he said.

When Ravenscroft cross-examined him, Caudrey answered, "You're queen of the earth, and I'm king." Later he said, "You're a modern Amazon. You have hit coalmen and dustmen."

The Bench dismissed both sum-
