MRS. CAROL PETERSON

Syracuse native gets dean's post

Mrs. Carol L. Peterson, daughter of Mrs. George Peberl of 603 Fern Rd., has been appointed assistant dean of students at Springfield College in Massachusetts, effective immediately.

A native of Syracuse, Mrs. Peterson, the former Carol Peberl, is a 1968 graduate of Westhill Central High School. She received the bachelor of science degree in community leadership and development from Springfield College in 1972.

Prior to her appointment as assistant dean, Mrs. Peterson served as director of housing at SC. She has also served as a nutrition aide in the Springfield Nutrition Education Program and on the student personnel staff as a resident director of Gulick Hall.

As assistant dean of students, Mrs. Peterson will assist Dr. John J. Costello in the coordination and administration of all student personnel services at the college including supervision of residence halls and the housing office and will also assist in the student counseling program. She will also serve as staff advisor to the student judicial system and parents' association and will be a member of the standing committees on student progress, health and affairs at the college.

Married to David R. Peterson of Bennington, Vt., Mrs. Peterson is a member of the Massachusetts Association of Women Deans and Counselors and National Association of Women Deans and Counselors.
