INTRODUCED BY MUTUAL FRIEND

A mutual acquaintance sparked off a romance which resulted in the marriage of a Breaston girl to a Chaddesden man on Easter Monday.

Through an introduction by her friend, cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Urenah Elaine Hutchinson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hutchinson, of 61 Belmont-avenue, Breaston, met Mr. David Charles Lowe, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lowe, of 28 Newhaven-road, Chaddesden.

The service, at St. Michael's Parish Church, Breaston, was conducted by the rector, the Rev. W. A. Pemberton.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a full-length white satin dress, a full-length veil with a diamante and pearl head-dress and carried a bouquet of gold roses.

Matron-of-honour Mrs. Zoe Burrell (friend) and bridesmaids Miss Janet Hepworth (friend) and Miss Jennie Hurd (cousin of the bridegroom) wore emerald green wild silk, full-length dresses with head-dresses of a single white rose. They carried Victorian posies of anemones.

Best man was Mr. Peter Burrell, a friend of both the bride and the bridegroom.

Mr. C. Sanderson was the organist.

Following a reception for 65 guests at the Pavilion Hotel, Long Eaton, the couple set off for Majorca to spend their honeymoon.

The bridegroom, who is in the Fleet Air Arm of the Royal Navy, and the bride, who is a bank clerk, will live at Somerset.
