

Convent News

Pupils Show Fashions

By NAN HERCSA

The Convent School - sewing classes presented a fashion show last week at the school. Sewing teacher, Mrs. Bittner, was moderator for the event and discussed the art of selecting fabrics, colors, lines and developing sewing skills.

Girls modeled their creations including pajamas, night shirts, beach robes, skirts, blouses, dresses, suits and evening gowns.

Moving-Up Day

Convent School combined "Moving-Up" and "Honors Days" this year in an assembly for all pupils in grades eight through 12.

Susan Ackley won the St.

Genesius Drama Award. Other drama awards went to Mary Agnes Bird, Eileen Delaney, Linda Reale, Mary DeJoseph and Mary Ann Budetti.

Catholic Student Missions Awards were won by Sarah Jean Avery, Eileen Delaney, Janet Murphy and Bernadine Salvagno. Mary Lou Barrett, commissioner of Catholic Action, won a citation of merit and the Paladin Award.

Also honored were those with grade averages above 90 and those with perfect attendance. Susan Ackley won the National French Award and Mary Jane Rupert the Convent French Award.