

Miss Brogan Is Married In Church

ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA church was the setting at 9 a. m., yesterday for the marriage of Miss Kathleen Anne Brogan, daughter of Philip E. J. Brogan of 334 W. Colvin st., and William Anthony Kohlbrenner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Kohlbrenner of 714 W. Colvin st. The Rev. Gabriel Kohlbrenner, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated.

Fingertip Veil

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected an ivory satin gown having a sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, fitted bodice with bead trim and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip length veil fell from a satin beaded cap. She carried a mother-of-pearl prayerbook with white roses.

Mrs. Charles A. McCarthy, matron of honor, wore a gold satin gown. Miss Mary Ellen Brogan, sister of the bride; Miss Mary Ann Kohlbrenner, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Kathleen Lane, Miss Mary Dineen and Miss Winifred Creamer were bridesmaids. They wore gowns in green, American Beauty and blue satin. They all carried mother-of-pearl prayer books with roses and wore floral headdresses.

James Gorman was best man. John Kohlbrenner, brother of the bridegroom; Robert Moynihan, James McSweeney, Charles McCarthy and Robert Horn were ushers.

After a reception at the home of the bride, the couple left on a trip to Washington, D. C., and Virginia. For traveling, the new matron chose a forest green suit with brown accessories.

The bride was graduated from St. Anthony of Padua high school and attended LeMoyne college. She is employed in the women's department of the Syracuse Herald-Journal and Syracuse Herald-American where she is editor of the Junior Set column.

Also a graduate of St. Anthony of Padua high school, Mr. Kohlbrenner is a sophomore at LeMoyne college.

Charles V.
