Miss Peck selects lace gown

The Rev. Thomas Bowman officiated at the wedding of Miss Cheryl Peck and David Lovell Saturday noon in Holy Family Church, Fairmount.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Peck, 118 Winfield Dr., Syracuse. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lovell of Camillus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a full-length gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a scalloped neckline, closely fitted bodice and a very full skirt. A detachable train fell from the waist. A crown of crystals and beads attached to a bouffant veil of silk illusion adorned her head.

Maid of honor was Miss Susan Benedict. Junior bridesmaid was Diane Peck, the bride's sister, and the flower girl was Janice Peck, also a sister of the bride.

Douglas Campbell served as best man and ushers were William Peck, James Lovell, Richard Webster and Richard Hudson.

Following the ceremony, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Solvay, was the scene of the reception. The couple left for Pillar Point on Lake Ontario. Both attended West Genesee Central High School. They will be home on Aug. 28.
