

the funeral home.

Services for WALLACE A. SLOAN, 70, of 206 Hartson St., who died Sunday at State University Hospital after he suffered a heart attack at his home, will be at 8:15 a.m. tomorrow at the Edward J. Ryan Funeral Home, 1628 W. Genesee St., and at 8:45 a.m. in St. Charles Borromeo Church where a requiem Mass will be celebrated. Burial will be in Assumption Cemetery.

Mr. Sloan was a former resident of 402 S. Orchard Road. A native of Baldwinsville, he was a Syracuse resident many years. He was a retired employe of Shell Oil Co. He had operated a service station in La Fayette and was a World War II veteran. Mr. Sloan was a communicant of St. Charles Borromeo Church and a member of its Holy Name Society. He was affiliated with Tipperary Hill Post 1361, American Legion.

He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Friends may call 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. today.