SPECIAL AGENTS TAKING MANUFACTURING CENSUS

Ten of Them Started Work in This District Yesterday.

Frank A. Sheridan of the Bureau of Statistics at Washington and a special agent of the Census Department was in the city yesterday to give instructions to the ten special agents who are to take the manufacturing census in this district.

The agents, who are employed at the rate of $4 a day, commenced their work yesterday afternoon. A month is to be allowed them in which to complete the work. The papers, as they are completed each night, will be forwarded to Washington.

The names of the special enumerators, who were appointed nearly two months ago, are as follows: Saul F. Lavine, Conrad C. Schoeneck, Harry J. Brayton, Alfred W. Armstrong, Harley J. Crane, William H. Roberts, James H. Smith and Oscar F. Austin of this city, and Arthur Virginia, Baldwinsville, and Oliver W. Sturdevant of Oneida.
