drivers for damage to parking meters were approved. The city will accept $14.50 from the Fitzgerald Bottling works and Ray Poulson, $13.50 from Jahn A. Sawicki and $65.60 from Edward Patnode.

Title to a number of properties was accepted by the city in lieu of tax lien foreclosure actions against the property owners. The properties and their owners included lots 294 to 299 on Mervin avenue, Filippo Notto; lot 57 on Linden street, Rachel Uhl; lots 17 to 20 on Banker avenue, Martin M. Cummings and Marie Ellerhoff, and lots 214 to 216 on Kelvin street, James H. Smith. Resolutions of regret and sym-
