

GREAT HAYWOOD CHILD KILLED.

Road Tragedy on Way Home From School.

Returning home from school at 5.40 p.m. yesterday, Frances Mary Martin, aged seven, of Toldish-lane, Great Haywood, stepped off the footpath into the main road and was knocked down by a motor-van, which approached from behind her.

Her skull was fractured and she died shortly after being admitted to hospital.
