

Miss Woch, G. B. Kosty Exchange Vows

CORNING — Miss Dolores Woch and Gregory B. Kosty were married Saturday, Aug. 7, at 10 a. m. in St. Vincent de Paul's Church.

The Rev. Joseph Hogan performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated Nuptial Mass. Mrs. Thomas Ward was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Woch of 589 W. Water St., Painted Post. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Louise Kosty of 79 Wardell St., and George Kosty of Market St.

Mr. Woch gave his daughter in marriage. She chose a white silk organza gown fashioned with a fitted bodice of peau de ange lace, portrait neckline and elbow-length sleeves. An empire waistline topped the floor-length skirt which was adorned with lace and seed pearl motifs. The chapel train was secured by a Dior bow.

Her waist length veil of imported silk illusion was secured by a crown of seed pearls, crystals and peau de ange lace. She carried a cascade of white spider mums and ivy.

Mrs. Brian Given of Corning, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Janice Payne of Campbell and Debra Lynn Woch of Monterey was her aunt's flower girl.

Richard Kosty of Corning served as best man for his brother. Ushering were William Eaton of Beaver Dams and Jeffrey Nelson of Corning.

After a reception at the Baron Steuben Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Kosty left for a trip to Florida. They will make their home in Elmira.

The bride graduated from Painted Post High School and attended Corning Community College. She is employed as a sportswear buyer for Rosenbaum's Department Store.

Her husband, a graduate of Northside High School and Corning Community College, attended Alfred University. He is employed as a laboratory technician by Corning Packaging Co.
