"Gyp, the Blood," Assaults Boy

Charles Yarka, 17 years old, known in police circles as "Gyp, the Blood," because of his alleged gypsy origin, pleaded guilty in City Court, of Corning, Saturday, to assaulting the 10-year-old son of Charles Kosty. Yarka, after being sentenced to a three month's term in Bath jail, was released under suspended sentence on condition that he should report to Chief Hanmer once a week until further notice. Yarka met the Kosty boy in an alley way where he beat the younger boy severely.

In the centuries long passed Petra was an important trading station for the caravans that moved between Persia and Egypt, and India and the holy land and Syria. It is built in a
