

A HERALD WO

Continues to Observe Rainy Sunday

DIFFERS FROM ITS AUTHOR

His Anticipations About Restraints Not Realized.

Given a Serenade.

Joseph Ott and Miss Mary Robbrenner were married last Tuesday at the Church of the Assumption by the Rev. Guido Fipp, O. M. C. They were serenaded after the ceremony by the members of the Knights of the Cross and a band.

WAS A STAR

State Circuit at Redonda.

BALD HAN UNPLACED

Jenny of Utica Injured in a Bad Spill.

and the people from time immemorial, not to mention those engaged in the traffic to and from land governments for their protection." Unfortunately, however, though it is in the legislative position from which "the people" cannot be relieved readily for a simple reason that it has no engrafted itself upon the life of other institutions that to antagonize the one is to endanger the interests of the other. The social as well as individual interests

of Arkansaw horses

the world.

A. E. Atkinson

W. Shedd