

Ott-Bird Wedding Ceremony To Be at Assumption Church

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Beatrice Ott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Ott of 143 Highland av., and Charles W. Bird. The wedding will take place July 16 at 9 o'clock in the Assumption Church with Rev. Engelbert Eichenlaub, O.M.C., officiating.

The bride will be attended by Norma Ehegartner, as maid of honor, and Miss Loretta Ott, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. Peter Reap will be Mr. Bird's best man. Ushers will be Frank Shaughnessy, uncle of the bridegroom, Leonard and William Ott, brothers of the bride.

Several prenuptial affairs have been arranged in honor of Miss Ott. Thursday evening Mrs. Jack Curley and Miss Victoria Stewart entertained at a kitchen shower at the home of the former, 509 Seeley rd.

Guests invited were: Miss Marguerite Knapp, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Mrs. Gerald Loomis, Miss Bess Reilly, Mrs. Robert Holmes, Mrs. Harold Hills, Miss Helen MacCallum, Miss Marion McGinn, Norma Ehegartner, Florence Ott, Loretta Ott, Margaret Shaughnessy, Mrs. Agnes Bird, Mrs. Joseph Ott, Mrs. Leonard Ott and Mrs. William Ott.

Miss Marion Ouderkirk and Miss Mary Conway of Skaneateles entertained Saturday at a luncheon and crystal shower at the Kan-Ya-To inn in Skaneateles. Invited were the Misses Norma Ehegartner, Ellen Hyland, Loretta Ott, Jane Ouderkirk, Mary Edyth Jenkins, Louise Murphy, Florence Ott, Mary Hogan, Arlene Zion, Margaret

Shaughnessy, Mrs. Joseph Ott, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Leonard Ott, Mrs. William Ott, Mrs. John Burns of Skaneateles and Mrs. Robert Wolcott of Oneonta.

—Romeo photo.

THE approaching marriage of Miss Beatrice Ott and Charles W. Bird is announced for July 16.