

Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy of Baldwinsville Celebrate Golden Wedding With 2 Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius McCarthy, Baldwinsville, with their children and grandchildren at the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary at the home of their daughters, Mrs. Charles Grieb and Mrs. William Kohlbrenner, 716 West Colvin Street.

He Is 72, She Is 68, and Both Are in Good Health

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius McCarthy of Baldwinsville celebrated their golden wedding yesterday with an anniversary breakfast and reception at the home of Mrs. Charles Grieb and Mrs. William Kohlbrenner, their daughters, at 716 West Colvin Street. Mr. McCarthy is 72 and Mrs. McCarthy is 68.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy are natives of Baldwinsville and were married in that village. Mr. McCarthy is a farmer and, although in the last few years he has retired from active work, he still manages his farm. Both Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy are in good health.

Participating in the anniversary celebration yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy's five daughters and three sons, with their husbands and wives. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grieb, Mr. and Mrs. William Kohlbrenner, Mr. and Mrs. James Phalen of Bedford, O., Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McSweeney of Utica, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs.

Lewis McCarthy and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moynihan, the latter three from Syracuse. Sixteen grandchildren of the couple were also at the celebration.

Among the guests at the anniversary breakfast were: The Rev. Patrick J. Sloan, St. Michaels Church, Onondaga Hill; the Rev. H. Kirchen, St. Marys Church, Baldwinsville; the Rev. John A. McGraw, St. Anthony of Padua Church, Syracuse; Mrs. Martin Savage, Buffalo; Miss Sarah Smith, J. H. Smith, Mrs. Jere McCarthy and Leo McCarthy, all of Baldwinsville.