

GORED IN THE FACE.

A Baldwinsville Farmer Painfully Injured---Personal Mention.

BALDWINSVILLE, Dec. 26.—Charles S. Kellar, a farmer living west of the village, came very near losing the sight of an eye. While feeding his cattle one of the animals suddenly raised its horns and struck Mr. Kellar in the face. It is not thought that the sight of the eye will be impaired, but it was a narrow escape.

Raymond McCarthy, son of J. P. McCarthy, fell 20 feet in the house which is being constructed on the little farm near this village on Monday. His face was badly cut in several places and his ankle sprained, but he was not otherwise injured.
