

Bride of Ex-Dunmorean

MRS. CHARLES RONAN CAULSON

Miss Sue Frances McCarthy, 83 Oswego St., Baldwinsville, N.Y., and Charles Ronan Caulson, formerly of Dunmore, were married Saturday at 11 A.M. in St. Mary's Church, Baldwinsville. The couple received the apostolic blessing of Pope Paul VI on their marriage.

The Right Rev. Msgr. Philip Brown, pastor, St. Rose Church, Cheverly, Md., a cousin of the bride, officiated at the ceremony and imparted the papal blessing. The Right Rev. Msgr. John Daley, pastor of St. Mary's, celebrated the nuptial mass.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. McCarthy, Baldwinsville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caulson, 302 North Blakely St., Dunmore.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a sheath gown of imported embroidered English net. Her fitted bodice was styled with short sleeves and a jeweled neckline. Seed pearls and crystal beads accented the floral design of the gown and the wide scalloped band at the hemline. A detachable train of silk peau de soie terminated to a full chapel sweep. Her headpiece was a mantilla of matching English net and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis with green ivy.

Mrs. Francis Moran, Dunmore, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and Miss Margaret Madigan, Manhasset, L.I., N.Y., maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Marie Caulson, Dunmore, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Marcia Junod, Philadelphia. They wore formal gowns of emerald green crepe, styled with satin mid-riffs extending to floor-length back panels. Their headpieces were bows and veils in matching color and they carried white mums and ivy.

Frank Caulson, Woodside, N.Y., was his brother's best man. Ushers were Albert O'Donnell and George Gulbin, both of this city; William Moran, Binghamton, N.Y., and Dr. William Dwyer, Syracuse, N.Y.

A reception followed at the Hotel Syracuse Ballroom, Syracuse.

Following their return from the New England states, the couple will reside at Eastwood, Syracuse.

The bride, a graduate of Baldwinsville Central High School, attended Marywood College and was graduated from Tobe-Coburn School of Fashion, New York City. The bridegroom, a graduate of St. Paul's High School, received his bachelor's degree from the University of Scranton and served as a first lieutenant with the Army. He is employed as a public accountant by Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery, Syracuse.
