

Joan Moran Weds Walter Cavanagh

The Apostolic blessing of Pope Paul was bestowed Friday afternoon in St. Mary of Mount Carmel Church, Dunmore, on the marriage of Joan McCarthy Moran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCarthy, Baldwinsville, N.Y., and Walter F. Cavanagh, son of Mrs. Walter Cavanagh, 1218 Woodlawn St., and the late Mr. Cavanagh.

The Nuptial Mass was concelebrated by Msgr. Joseph Quinn, the Rev. John Esseff and the Rev. Paul and James Flynn.

The bride wore a long sleeveless moon glow knit gown designed with a fitted bodice and accordian pleated skirt. The scoop neckline was outlined with gold braid. The blazer jacket featured matching braid and gold buttons.

Mrs. Charles Caulson, Baldwinsville, was matron of honor for her sister, attired in a cooper colored gown of matte jersey above an A-line skirt of taffeta.

William Harding, Westboro, Mass., was best man. Ushers were Charles Caulson, Baldwinsville, N.Y.; Eugene Molner, Endwell; James Ross, Clark's Summit and James Scanlon, Scranton.

A reception for 250 guests followed at the Country Club of Scranton.

Mrs. Cavanagh is a graduate of Marywood College and has taught in the Dunmore Schools. Mr. Cavanagh is a graduate of the University of Scranton and is president of P. Z. Cavanagh Co., Inc.

Following their trip to Florida, the couple will reside in Dunmore.
