hair house and the old fort.

—Last week Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of her son, Isaac Magoon, in Addison, occurred the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Magoon, aged 87 years. Mrs. Magoon had been around as usual until about a week ago, when she was taken ill and grew rapidly worse until the end came. Mrs Magoon was born in Meadville Pa. and when a young girl moved with her parents to Farmington, Pa. In the year 1855 she was married to Oel Magoon, in the town of Howard. Mr Magoon died 19 years ago. Since her husband's death she had made her home with her son, Isaac Magoon. Mrs Magoon was a member of the M. E. church. Only one son survives, Isaac Magoon, of Addison; two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Hulda Brown, of Norfolk, Pa.; L. J. Bronson, of Tuscarora, and I. F. Bronson, of Corning.
